ALLIANCE ARRIVES IN PORT

Col. E. L. Drake, Oil Barge No. 3 and Breakwater Leave Out—Ascension, F. S. Loop, Bessie Dollar and Gerald C. Arrive In—Other Notes.

Yesterday morning opened up, at the mouth of river, with a rough bar, the wind was blowing 15 miles, from the East, and the weather was cloudy. At 12 o'clock the wind conditions were the same but the bar had moderated. Toward evening the wind had dropped to 15 miles an hour all other conditions being the same.

The Lansing cleared at the custom house yesterday for Port Harford for a cargo of oil.

The steamer Breakwater left out for Coos Bay at 10 a. m. yesterday.

The oil steamer Ascension arrived in at 3 p. m. yesterday and passed up the river.

The Alliance arrived in port at 10 a. m. yesterday and left up at 11:15 a. m.

The new steam schooner F. S. Loop arrived in the harbor at 5 p. m. yesterday and left up at 6 o'clock. This is her maiden trip and she will load lumber for California. She bears a close resemblance to the R. D. Inman.

The Bessie Dollar, which is now flying the British flag arrived in yesterday from San Diego in ballast. She has been chartered to carry flour and grain from Portland to Japan. She left up yesterday afternoon.

JESSUP'S FUNERAL.

NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—Because of the active part he took in municipal affairs, the funeral of Morris K. Jessup, who died yesterday which will be held in the brick Presbyterian Church on Fifth avenue, Saturday morning, at 9:30 o'clock, will partake of the nature of a public ceremony. Representatives of many civic organizations and charitable institutions with which the late banker and man of affairs was connected will attend it. Today a special meeting of the chamber of commerce will be held to take action on Mr. Jessup's death. He was for several years president of the chamber and for a long time had been one of its most active members. Among those who will deliver addresses are Jos. H. Choate, Seth Low and Brayton Ives.

DROPPED SOLDERING IRON.

NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—Dropping from the 42nd story of the new Singer building on lower Broadway yesterday afternoon a red hot five-pound soldering iron landed on the head of a mason helper, who was at work on the 27th floor of the adjoining City Investing building, burning and fracturing his skull. The victim, John Boyle, 36 years old, was taken to a hospital in a dying condition. It was not learned who dropped the iron.

Another missile, this time from a mysterious source, in the shape of a good sized steel bolt, crashed down through the skylight of the Federal building yesterday, narrowly missing P. M. Murphy as he was walking under the glass. Whence it came is still a mystery.
